

Draft PDA Designation

- Existing
- Modified
- New
- Protected Open Space

Priority Development Areas

Current and Proposed

Priority Development Areas, commonly known as PDAs, are areas within existing communities that local city or county governments have identified and approved for future growth. These areas typically are accessible by one or more transit services; and they are often located near established job centers, shopping districts and other services.

Scale:

Miles

0 3 6 9 12

Kilometers

0 4 8 12 16

